Tobias Takes Swimming Title
From Weakened Field at Sportsmen's Show.

McGREGOR WINS DIVE

Yale Amphibian Shows That
His Defeat of National Champion Was No Fluke.

Through the suspension of ten of the crack swimmers of the New York Athletic club, because of their participation in an unsanctioned swimming meet at Annapolis last week—Nicholas Nerich, the middle distance champion, being among them—Tobias, an unattached amphibian, won the 500 yard Metropolitan championship at the opening of the Sportsmen's Show in Madison Square Garden last night. Tobias won the final heat by fifteen yards from H. Knecht, the West Side Y. M. C. A. swimmer, in the fair time of 7 minutes 17.2 seconds.

In the final heat Paul Roberts of Yale started a sprint and covered the first century in 1 minute 12.4 seconds. He passed the 200 yard mark with a scant lead over A. J. Palencsar, but was tiring fast. Tobias crept up, passed Palencsar and took the lead at 300 yards. Roberts quit in the next lap. Tobias increased his lead and splashed across the finish in 7 minutes 17.2 seconds, almost a minute behind the record established by C. M. Daniels of the New York A. C. in 1911.

The fancy diving contest proved a feature. Malcolm McGregor, the Yale champion, who defeated Arthur McAlenahan, the national title holder, at Columbia last week, won the event with 66.4-10 points. C. Behrens, the foreign champion, representing the City A. C., scored a close second with 62.8-10 points.

McGregor has been commending exactness. He tried a forward one and a half running dive, but splashed a trifle. Then he attempted a backward jump with a half twist, and cut the water with a knife. Fred Barrett of Columbia, J. F. Dunn and F. N. Mullen, both of the New York A. C., were the only ones of the big entry that scratched.

Between the final of the diving and 500 yard swim, Kearney P. Speed, the champion high diver of the world, dived from a stand seventy-three feet in the air into six feet of water. His thriller was followed by C. Holden. Holden tried a back-dive from a platform close to the garden and managed to land in the six foot tank without injury.

Exhibitions by Capt. Schomburgk of the United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps and the Misses Trapp, Olga and Corbette of the National Women's Life Saving League were performed during the afternoon. Mrs. Howard, who won the women's five mile championship swim from Rockaway to the island of Long Island, and Miss Bartelds, who finished third to Mrs. Howard, also showed a few tricks that are used in saving lives.

In the amateur pool shooters event Mrs. L. G. Vogel of Detroit tied with A. J. Palencsar, who scored 24 birds out of a possible 25. Mrs. Vogel surprised the veterans by her marksmanship, as she took only one card, while Redd took four. J. P. Sousa, the band leader, tried a few trials, but could score no higher than 19 out of 25 targets.

Andrew Patane of Bryant High School led the schoolboys in the junior marksmanship competition, scoring 96 out of a possible 100. Maxie, a senior, followed who scored 89 or better, and fifty-two qualified. The competition is authorized by the War Department. The aquatic summaries:

Five Boats Ended Quickly in Amateur Boxing Tourney.—Knockouts featured the amateur boxing tournament which was held at the New York Athletic Club last night. Five of the bouts were brought to a sudden termination by means of a knockout, including punch, but these and the other battles which went the full distance gave the large crowd of spectators plenty of excitement.

Sammy Diamond of the Pastime Athletic Club, who has been rapidly forging to the front in the 108 pound class, won the first prize among the little fellows by knocking out Eddie Adams of the Young Men's Hebrew Association in the second round. Diamond's opponent was found dead on the floor with a right hook to the jaw shortly before the final bell.

Diamond might have had a proposition before him in the semi-final bout, but his opponent, Jimmy Carroll of the Ozone A. A. bit his tongue so badly that he was forced to withdraw.

In the final of the 115 pound class George Maas of the Glencoe A. C. defeated Vincent Allen of the Mott Haven in the first round. Jimmy Sheridan of the Trinity Club knocked out his opponent in two rounds and then confronted Tony Tubby of the Etienne Nours Lyceum, who had laid his victim low in one inning. Sheridan won on a decision. The summaries:
